- My name is Daniel Thuo. I school at Faith Foundational School. I live in Juja in Kiambu county with my family.
- The NGUVU Street-Football League is a motivational project. The league eradicates idleness from the young boys and girls.
- At first, I was expecting to win but later, I discovered that it is all about fair-play.
- This was my first time to play in a league and I was so happy. Being my first time to play in a league, I was eager and it turned out fine.
- My team was called tigers and we were seven boys.
- I had prepared for the first games by playing football and learning dribbles.
- I came to learn that the intention of the competition was to teach the youth of respect, hardwork, teamwork and discipline.
- I have learnt to have hardwork and teamwork.
- All I would like to have a fair play and I am looking forward to have a fair play in the second round of the league. I would like to thank Mr. Lothar Firlej for organizing the league.
